THE PETERSBURG RAILROAD ELECTION-THE BILL REJECTED BY A LARGE MAJORITY-FRIENDS AND OPPONENTS OF THE SCHEME VOTE AGAINST IT-A SUPPRISING ANNOUNCE-MENT FROM THE FRIENDS OF THE BILL, AND THE EFFECT THEREOF-THE REPUBLICAN PARTY VOTE AS A UNIT AGAINST THE BILL-PANIC IN A CROWD-CONFIRMATION BY BISH-OP WHITTLE, &C., &C. [Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

MARCH 9, 1878. The discussion of the Petersburg railroad question was closed last night at the Academy of Music in the presence of an immense assemblage of people. Speeches were made by Senator William E. Hinton and General William Mahone in advocacy of the bill. and by Major Charles S. Stringfellow in opposition. With the knowledge that gentlemen of such prominence were to discuss the measure, it could not otherwise be exnected than that they would have a very large audience. The discussion assumed a wide range, and the past, present, and future of the Petersburg railroad received thorough ventilation. The speaking commenced at 8 o'clock and was not concluded until 1 o'clock this morning. It was at times intensely interesting and exciting. and the audience remained unbroken until

The Republican party also beld a large meeting last night to consider the railroad. Speakers were present to advocate the purchase of the road by the city, but it was with difficulty that they could make themselves heard, such seemed to be the opposition to the scheme. Peter G. Morgan. chairman of the Republican, Executive Committee, and Mr. J. H. Van Auken. United States inspector, spoke against the bill to enable the city to purchase the road, and the crowd present was almost unanimously in sympathy with them; and it was decided to vote to-day against the ratification of the bill by the people. With the division of sentiment existing among the white people of the city on the subject this action f the Republican party made the defeat of the bill certain by a considerable majority.

When this action of the Republicans came to the knowledge of the friends of the railroad bill last night a meeting of a number of the gentlemen who had taken a leading and prominent part in advocacy of the bill was held at a late hour of the night, and as a result of that meeting the following card appeared in the papers of this morning:

· IMPORTANT TO THE FRIENDS OF THE RAIL. ROAD BILL.-Though we announce our unshaken faith in the principles, the wisdom. and the objects of the railroad bill, reasons of the gravest character, which will in due time be given to the people, compel us to advise its friends to go to the polls and vote "W. E. HINTON, Jr., "WILLIAM MAHONE,

"S. P. ARRINGTON, "SAMUEL B. PAUL, "T. J. JARRATT. "JOHN R. PATTERSON, "R. T. ARRINGTON,

This card, of course, caused great surprise in the community, and the conjectures have been numerous during the day as to the reasons for issuing it. There seems to have been some ground for the belief that the Radicals, taking advantage of the division among the whites on the subject, might spring a trap to-day and elect the Board of ommissioners, and thereby secure the prethe fact that the Radicals have to-day voted unanimously against the bill. I am unprepared to say. There were doubtless other nd stronger reasons that influenced the friends of the bill to advise all who favored it to vote against it. The result of the card has been to cause very little interest in the election, the casting of fewer votes than would otherwise have been polled, and a very quiet day generally. Friends and opponents of the bill generally voted against it. The following is the result of the vote in the city on the bill:

For ratification..... Against ratification.
For appropriation of $200,000 by the city, as authorized by the act.
Against appropriation.

In the midst of the discussion at the Academy of Music last night, after the close of General Mahone's speech, some one in the gallery gave the cry of "Fire" in a loud voice, which was repeated by others, and for a few moments the large assemblage was thrown into great excitement. Those near the doors rushed out, and the windows were raised to afford egress. Fortunately no one sustained any injuries, though the rush-especially in the galleries-was great. Quiet was restored in a few minutes.

Bishop Whittle preached at Grace church last night to a very large congregation, and confirmed a class of thirty-five persons. He visits St. Paul's church to-night, where quite a large class will be presented to him. and St. John's and St. Stephen's churches to-morrow.

The press of this city have made arrangements for the annual meeting of the Press Association of Virginia on Wednesday next, and for the reception and entertainment of the visiting brethren. A banquet will be given in honor of the Association on the evening of the 13th.

An attempt was made last night to break into the residence of Mr. E. C. Venable, on Washington street. Mr. Venable was awakened by the burglar, and fired two through the yard. ROBIN ADAIR.

Lynch-Law in the Valley. SUMMARY PUNISHMENT OF A WOMAN WHO IN-STIGATED BARN-BURNING.

(Special telegram to the Dispatch

HARRISONBURG, March 9 .- On Tuesday evening a negro man, Jim Arbegast, who had been in the employ of Henry E. Sipe. residing a couple of miles below McGaheys ville, in this county, was brought to fail here, charged with the burning of Mr. Sipe's barn on Thursday evening last, 28th ultimo. By the destruction of the barn Mr. Sipe lost very heavily. Two horses, two the harness, saddles, and bridles, were consumed, and all the products of grain, hay, &c. Mr. Sipe had not been in the habit of keeping his harness and implements in his barn, and used another building for the purpose. But the building used for that purpose being old and somewhat unsuited. it had just been torn down, and he had commenced the erection of a new one in its stead. Hence the usual contents of this outer building were stored in the barn at mitted just at nightfall.

The instigator of the barn-burning was a woman named Charlotte Harris, who has since yielded up her life to the inexorable demand of lynch law. On Wednesday evening V. H. and J. M. Lamb and John Sipe. who had gone in pursuit of the colored woman who induced Jim Arbegast (colored) to fire a barn, and then made her escape, returned with her in custody. When the hearing had concluded (the hour being late) it was agreed to place the woman under guard and keep her until morning, when she was to have been brought to town and lodged in jail, there to await the penalty of the law. The guard comprised four persons. At the hour of 11 c'clock two men, who in color were black, made their appearance in front of the building in which the prisoner was.

They rushed into the house and drew their pistols, and demanded a peaceable surrender of the woman. PENSIONS.

SOLDIERS AND WIDOWS OF THE WAR 1812.

All soldiers surviving and enlisted and drafted men, including militia and volunteers, who served fourteen days in the war of 1812, are now entitled to a PENSION OF NINETY-SIX DOLLARS PER ANNUM; also the widows of such surviving are so

Engaged in the prosecution of claims in this city for the past twenty-eight years, I have voluminous records in my possession of mittary service in the war of 1812 not to be found in the Capitol of the State, nor in the possession of any other agent or stationer in this city or State, and therefore enjoy superior advantages to all others engaged in the successful prosecution of pension claims.

Fixed fees have been established by law to the agent or attorney. I will in the future, as in the past, attend to the interest of any claimant entrusted to my care with punctuality and dispatch.

WIDOWS' PENSIONS WAR 1812.-

W IDOWS' PENSIONS WAR 1812.—

By a recent act of Congress all widows whose husbands served in the war of 1812 fourteen days are entitled to a pension. The undersigned has access to private data showing the time of service by all Virginia troops in said war which cannot be obtained anywhere else short of the Third Auditor's office at Washington. D. C., and is prepared to get PENSIONS for all persons eatified under said act. In all communications to me please state whether you or your husband ever received any bounty land, and also give the name of your husband's captain, and the county from which he culisted.
